Problem Description

Dear FCC:

On Tuesday, February 15, 2011, while my family (with a 12-year old) and I were watching Drake & Josh on Teen Nick, I was appalled to see commercials for an upcoming episode of "Degrassi: The Next Generation" which showed not only two teenage girls kissing, but two teenage boys kissing also! This is simply UNACCEPTABLE CONTENT to be showing young impressionable minds, especially on a network geared toward young teens.

While I realize we have a choice on whether to watch the show or not, WE DON'T HAVE MUCH CHOICE OR HARDLY HAVE TIME TO CHANGE THE CHANNEL WHEN IT SHOWS A 20-SECOND COMMERCIAL OF INDECENT CONTENT AT 7:00 P.M. EST WHEN CHILDREN OF "ALL AGES" ARE GLUED TO THE TV SET. Amazingly, this commercial repeated itself about 2 or 3 times over the course of an hour AT EVERY COMMERCIAL BREAK, and the next day also.

While TEEN NICK may consider this NORMAL teenage behavior, I would venture to say the VAST majority of Americans DO NOT AGREE! I really expected more from Teen Nick and would hope that protecting our young children would come ahead of TV "ratings"!

Therefore, I am filing a complaint with the Federal Communication Commission. The government restricts the broadcast of obscene, indecent and profane material to protect children from exposure to patently offensive descriptions of sexual or excretory activities and to enable parents to decide what material their children will see or hear.

Based on my research, the FCC has shown that there is a compelling governmental interest in protecting children from indecent material in broadcasts or (commercials) between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. Also, I'm aware that Federal courts have upheld the Commission's authority to restrict broadcasts of indecent material at times when there is a reasonable risk that children will be in the audience.

A concerned Parent,

 b6

Song is obscene (sex in the air and like the smell of it whips and chains excite me) My teenage son was in the car when this came on. Can not believe this is allowed to be played at 8am and throughout daytime hours when children are listening.

Feels so good being bad (Oh oh oh oh oh)
There's no way I'm turning back (Oh oh oh oh oh)

Love is great, love is fine (Oh oh oh oh oh)
Out the box, outta line (Ob oh ob oh oh)
The affliction of the feeling leaves me wanting more (Oh oh oh oh oh)

'Cause I may be bad, but I'm perfectly good at it
Sex in the air, I don't care, I love the smell of it
Sticks and stones may break my bones
But chains and whips excite me

 Commercial for Tosh.O

Problem Description

I was watching the movie Employee of the Month and was highly disturbed by a commercial aired for the program Tosh.O. In the commercial, the host of the show being promoted turns into an animated character, then pulls out a pistol, shoots a baby, and then vomits into the baby carriage.

I was shocked, appalled, and disgusted. My husband and I were completely ambushed by this disdainful attempt at what the host referred to as a dirty joke. In addition to completely failing to be even amusing in a fleeting sense of the word, and therefore qualify as a joke, it was deeply disturbing to think that not just the host, but the animators, producers, and other members of the network would think that this was a perfectly acceptable way to promote a television program.

I was able to find the same commercial on youtube.com here is the link: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NIjR3eHbdNs>

If this doesn't qualify as both "obscene" and "indecent," then the FCC is doing this country a great injustice by failing to adequately regulate the material being broadcast. The day the FCC believes this to be acceptable advertisement is the day the FCC is obsolete.

Network:

Program Name: A Christmas Story
 Broadcast Date: December 24, 2007
 Broadcast Time: 8:00pm ET
 My Affiliate: TBS

Description of Indecency:

TBS has been doing the 24-hour marathons of "A Christmas Story" since the 90's. I think it's morally wrong to pass this film off as a feel-good holiday family movie when in fact, it sends a dangerous message because it's about 8-year-old Ralphie Parker who does anything to get a BB gun which he does from his dad. Plus, the ending shows him going to sleep with said gun.

Problem Description

TNT was broadcasting live the game between the Milwaukee Brewers and the Arizona Diamond backs, at the end of the game when the Brewers were celebrating their victory one of the reporters was interviewing Nyjer Morgan and he blatingly used the "F" word 3 times on live television and so far I have not seen one thing about this in the news of him being fined or an apology, I have 2 young boys that were luckily not at home at the time of this and did not hear it but I am sure there was thousands more that did, this upsets me and something needs to be done about this, I think I should be able to watch a game with my kids and not have to worry about this kind of language being used, I think the player needs to be fined due to him being a professional athlete that people look up to, I wouldn't go into my job screaming the obscenities that he shouted on live tv, so he shouldn't be allowed to do the same. I also filed a complaint with the Brewers but have yet to get a apology or even a response back, to me this is a slap in the face, they act like its nothing and are not taking this serious so maybe this will get their attention and tell their players to watch their mouth. I think this needs to be told throughout the sports league's, they need to remember that we the fans are the reason they have a job like they do making outrageous salaries and need to respect the public. Thank You

Problem Description

Super Bowl Halftime when performer Flipped off America by middle finger gesture in prime time TV in front of Millions of children. The NFL and NBC has a history of edgy performances during halftime and the FCC should come down on them hard with their prior history and reprimands and fines. Evidently they are snubbing their noses at the government rules and the american people. Do the right thing for America and follow the law not partisan politics. Thanks in advance
